Echo and the Bunnymen - Nothing lasts forever written by Echo and the Bunnymen chords transcribed by Lupas
I was quite surprised to find out that no one transcribed the chords of this beautiful song yet, so i thought it was time to give my first contribution to the OLGA, even though I m just a beginner in guitar playing. Corrections and suggestions are obviously more than welcome !
Verse 1:
I want it now
I want it now
                                           D
not the promises of what tomorrow brings F#m
I need to live in dreams today
                                        D
I m tired of the songs that sorrow sings
Bridge :
D7
                                G
And I want more than I can get
Just trying to, trying to, trying to forget
Verse 2:
I d walk to you through rings of fire and never let you know the way I feel F#m
under skin is where I hide
                                            D
```

```
the love that always gets me on my knees Bridge :
             D7
                                       G
and I want more than I can get
just trying to, trying to, trying to forget Chorus (X2) :
nothing ever lasts forever
                                 D
nothing ever lasts forever
Verse 3:
I want it now
F#m
I want it now
                                                  D don t tell me that my ship is coming in F#m
nothing comes to those who wait
                                                           D
time s running out the door you re running in Bridge :
            D7
                                      G
So I want more than I can get just trying to, trying to, trying to forget Chorus (X2):
nothing ever lasts forever
                                 D
nothing ever lasts forever
                                   G
all the shadows and the pain are coming to you ...
```
