Subject: TAB: Great Things BY Echobelly

I noticed the lack of Echobelly in OLGA so I decided to knock something up.
(Also went to the gig at Manchester Academy last night and wanted to share a bit of the Echobelly experience with you all!)

I m afraid I haven t included all the lyrics - I can t tell what she s saying half the time! I have included the chorus and 1 verse. There is a middle eight but that s just the verse chords with no vocals.
Basically there s enough here to get you playing a half decent rendition!

Please e-mail me with any comments or if you find these useful and I will have a crack at other echobelly tracks - let me know which you want to see.
