

We Are Ghosts
EchoBrain

intro
E & C

E C
Stone touch so rare in the air,
E C
Stolen, but still puts up a fight,
E C
When the day sings blasÃ©,
E C
Hopelessly estranged here I am,
E C
Strained in this strange love I find,
E C
You whip my with my own desire,
E C
Catching the ashes of the fire,
E C
Will I find love tonight?

You are the fire of tonight,
Why am I here?
You have all the strength to lose,
I am struggling you say, stay stay,

You live on through all the suffering through today,
Asked to leave your love cause my heart always too far,
so we are ghosts

..::This sounds about right to me, if any questions or if you have any other echoBrain tabs
please send them to me at CharlesYoung85@hotmail.com, I think Jason Newsted has hit a gold mine with these guys, the music is great to listen to after a long day
of Metallica and Pantera:~..
