It s a new day, and this is England

When it s time to escape from the heavy of this
 There is nothing like washing away
 I find this country of mine get some bad reputation
 Of being cold and grey
 But on the coast of the south to the east followed round
 I find serenity I ve never felt
 There s a peace and a quiet in this island of ours
 That can t be mirrored by anywhere else
 Homes protruding from stones with their wood-coloured black
 Scattered cars in a line, steam risin out the shack
 One door at the front and then just glass at the back for the view
 And the blue is so bright, you ll need shades for your eyes
 And the cable to pull over
 Take a walk and feel like, everything will be fine
 It s a new day, and this is England
