FA#m LA
She played the fiddle in an Irish band
MI RE
But she fell in love with an English man
RE LA
Kissed her on the neck and then I took her by the hand
MI
Said baby I just want to dance.

FA#m LA
I met her on Grafton street right outside of the bar
MI RE
She shared a cigarette with me while her brother played the guitar
FA#m LA
She asked me what does it mean the Gaelic ink on your arm?
MI
Said it was one of my friend's songs
LA
do you want to drink on?.

FA#m LA
She took Jamie as a chaser, Jack for the fun
MI RE
She got Arthur on the table, with Johnny riding as a shotgun
SIm7 LA
Chatted some more, one more drink at the bar
MI
Then put Van on the jukebox, got up to dance, you know.

You're my pretty little Galway Girl.

FA#m LA
You know she beat me at darts and then she beat me at pool
MI RE
And then she kissed me like there was nobody else in the room
FA#m LA
As last orders were called was when she stood on the stool
MI LA
After dancing to Ceili singing to trad tunes.

FA#m LA
I never heard Carrickfergus ever sung so sweet
MI RE
A capella in the bar using her feet for the beat
SIm7 LA
Oh, I could have that voice playing on repeat for a week
MI
And in this packed out room swear she was singing to me.

FA#m LA
Now we've overstayed our welcome and it's closing time
MI RE
I was holding her hand, her hand was holding mine
FA#m LA
Our coats both smell of smoke, whisky and wine
MI
As we fill up our lungs with the cold air of the night.

FA#m LA
I walked her home then she took me inside
MI RE
Finish some Doritos and another bottle of wine

FA#m LA
I swear I'm going to put you in a song that I write
MI
About a Galway Girl and a perfect night.
