

What a beautiful way to spend the rest of a life

G

Some will reappear, burning auburn and red

D

I'll chest the pill, bring us home to bed

Em

Last night was the night, one last moment of truth

C

What a wonderful way, to fall in deeper in with you

Am

Why was I feeling nervous, when?

C

Things were going so perfect, and

G

Now I know it's worth it, to

D

To spend forever with you

D

So I count to three, get on one knee

C

Em

D

And I ask you, darling honestly

D

I've waited all this time, just to make it right

C

Em

D

So I ask you, tonight, will you marry me?

C

Just say yes

D

G

It's one word, one love, one life

G

Your hand in mine

Em

Some things were just meant to be

G

Hearts intertwined

Em

Some things were just meant to be

G

In perfect time

Em

Some things were just meant to be

G

Oh you and I

Em

Some things were just meant to be

G

Your hand in mine

D

Some things were just meant to be

C

Hearts intertwined

Em

Some things were just meant to be

G

In perfect time

D

Some things were just meant to be

C

Oh you and I

Em

Some things were just meant to be
