

The day i was born
Ed Sheeran

C F
Got a call from my mother who wishes that she was here
G
Couple of cards in the post that I m readin
C F
I want the warmth of the summer, the cold too cold to bear
G
The only plus is the sweater I needed
C F
I broke apart from my lover a couple months ago
G
If they were here, then I guess I wouldn t be alone
C F
This is the life in the city and that s the way it goes
G
But it s a fine excuse just to leave it

Dm C G
I hit her mom and I asked, Ar? you comin over?
Dm C G
And all I got was a shrug and then, I don t know

C F
And ev?ryone I know is hidden away
G
Tryna make their bodies clean again
C F
And they don t want to celebrate
G
Nobody cares this is the day I was born
C F
Always the month when parties come to an end
G
The same excuses from every friend
C F
Another year and now we re here again
G
Nobody cares this is the day I was born

C
Another birthday alone
F G
La-la-lay, la-la-lay
C

Another birthday alone

F C G

La-la-lay, la-la-lay

C F

I hit a bar in town, get my account, start a tav

G

Everyday that we re here, well, we re never gettin back

C F

And so I drink for the confidence cause that s what I lack

G

And end up talkin to strangers and findin another plaque

C F

I am denyin in the carpet, spinnin on my own

G

Watchin pointless shit and flickin through my phone

C F

And would April be better? I guess I ll never know

G

I ll take the keys from my pocket and stumble into home

Dm C G

And I feel low, but I guess I could feel lower

Dm C G

I m headin down and now I m on a row

C F

And ev?ryone I know is hidden away

G

Tryna make their bodies clean again

C F

And they don t want to celebrate

G

Nobody cares this is the day I was born

C F

Always the month when parties come to an end

G

The same excuses from every friend

C F

Another year and now we re here again

G

Nobody cares this is the day I was born

C

Another birthday alone

F C G

La-la-lay, la-la-lay
