Of all the money that e'er I had

I've spent it in good company
Fm C# G# Eb
And all the harm that e'er I've done
Fm C# Bbm Fm
Alas it was to none but me
G# C# G# Eb
And all I've done for want of wit
Bbm G# Eb Fm Eb
To memory now I can't recall
Fm C# G# Eb
So fill to me the parting glass
Fm C# Bbm Fm
Good night and joy be with you all

Of all the comrades that e'er I had
Fm C# G# Eb
They are sorry for my going away
Fm C# G# Eb
And all the sweethearts that e'er I had
Fm C# Bbm Fm
They would wish me one more day to stay
G# C# G# Eb
But since it falls unto my lot
Bbm G# Eb Fm Eb
That I should rise and you should not
Fm C# G# Eb

I ll gently rise and I ll softly call
Fm C# Bbm Fm
Good night and joy be with you all

[Verse 3]

Fm C# G# Eb
A man may drink and not be drunk
Fm C# G# Eb
A man may fight and not be slain
Fm C# G# Eb
A man may court a pretty girl
Fm C# Bbm Fm
And perhaps be welcomed back again
G# C# G# Eb
But since it has so ought to be
Bbm G# Eb Fm Eb
By a time to rise and a time to fall
Fm C# G# Eb
Come fill to me the parting glass
Fm C# G# Eb
Goodnight and joy be with you all
Fm C# Bbm Fm
Goodnight and joy be with you all
