[Intro]

G#m E B F#

[Verse 1]

G#m E B F#
Of all the money that e'er I had
G#m E B F#
I've spent it in good company
G#m E B F#
And all the harm that e'er I've done
G#m E C#m G#m
Alas it was to none but me
B E B F#
And all I've done for want of wit
C#m B F# G#m F#
To memory now I can't recall
G#m E B F#
So fill to me the parting glass
G#m E C#m G#m
Good night and joy be with you all

[Verse 2]

G#m E B F#
Of all the comrades that e'er I had
G#m E B F#
They are sorry for my going away
G#m E B F#
And all the sweethearts that e'er I had
G#m E C#m G#m
They would wish me one more day to stay
B E B F#
But since it falls unto my lot
C#m B F# G#m F#
That I should rise and you should not
G#m E B F#

I ll gently rise and I ll softly call
G#m E C#m G#m
Good night and joy be with you all

[Verse 3]

G#m E B F#
A man may drink and not be drunk
G#m E B F#
A man may fight and not be slain
G#m E B F#
A man may court a pretty girl
G#m E C#m G#m
And perhaps be welcomed back again
B E B F#
But since it has so ought to be
C#m B F# G#m F#
By a time to rise and a time to fall
G#m E B F#
Come fill to me the parting glass
G#m E B F#
Goodnight and joy be with you all
G#m E C#m G#m
Goodnight and joy be with you all
