

We Should Be Sleeping
Eddie Money

I am pretty sure Eddie Money plays this in E, but I can sing it better in A. Not sure on the bridge.

A

We should be sleeping

G

Weâ€™re wide awake but

D

A

We re dead on our feet

A

We`re never keeping

G

All of the promises

A

We said we`d keep

Four in the morning

Still got the light

And the radio on

Don`t worry, baby

I`m gonna change all

The things that were wrong

We should be sleeping

Tables are turning

It`s breaking my heart

Things`ll get better

I`ll end this nightmare

Before it can start

A

G

Don`t say bye bye bye

D

A

Bye bye bye, baby

A

D

A

Why should we Break down and cry

A

D

A

Can`t let the world Drive you crazy

A

G

Don`t say bye

D

A

Baby, bye bye

A

G

Don`t say bye

D

A

Baby, bye bye

We should be sleeping
We`re wide awake but
We`re dead on our feet
We`re never keeping
All of the promises
We said we`d keep

Don`t say bye bye bye
Bye bye bye, baby
Why should we Break down and cry
Can`t let the world Drive you crazy
Don`t say bye
Baby, bye bye

G

No deposit, no return

A

Play with love You`re gonna burn

G

Cheat yourself You cheat your heart

A

We should be sleeping

Don`t say bye bye bye
Bye bye bye, baby
Why should we Break down and cry
Don`t let the world Drive you crazy
Don`t say bye
Baby, bye bye
Don`t say bye bye
Bye, baby, now

Don`t say bye bye bye
Bye bye bye, baby
Why should we Break down and cry
Don`t let the world Drive you crazy
Oh, no, don`t say bye
Baby, bye bye

Don`t say bye bye bye
Bye bye bye, baby
Why should we Break down and cry
Don`t let the world Drive you crazy
Don`t say bye
Baby, bye bye
