Thoughts of Flight, By Edmund

Awesome song. To learn the strum patter (which is really fun to play) look up the song on Youtube. If you have any reason that you think this tab is wrong, let me know and I ll do my best to fix it.

G

My breath it stops here

Bm

I m all open eyed

C

And I need surprise

G

My hands feel like wires

Bm

My fingers rust

C

I ll justify my thoughts of flight

Bm

C

Bm

And run to space on the horizon

Bm

C

Bm

And there make a bed for us to lie on

G

Caught in tumbles

Bm

C

My oh my, to my surprise

G

Bm

Another canvas, another slate

It s my mistake

C

I just needed

Bm

C

Bm

So I run to space on the horizon

C

Bm

And there make a bed for us to lie on

C

Bm

C

We won t describe even though we will try

Bm

C

Bm

What it s like to be smiling in open air

G Bm
My skin grows over my mistakes
C
And I just can't wait
G
The first few seconds
Bm C
Disintegrate into a state of joy

Bm C Bm
So I run to space on the horizon
C Bm
And there make a bed for us to lie on
C Bm C
And we won't describe, even though we will try
Bm C Bm
What it's like to be smiling in open air

G
One more day of perfect terror
Bm
Close my eyes and I'm still there
C
Wrapped in water

G
My eyes explode with all this light
Bm
And taste just melded to the night
C
And I can hear a symphony
Bm
A perfect crystal melody
C
And I just can't stop smiling at you
Bm
I just can't stop smiling

G
Can every time I breathe in
Bm C
Be every time you breathe out
