

River Of Love
Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros

I m sorry if any lyrics are wrong. I m not a native speaker and I couldn t hear Jade clearly in the video :)

There is another version out there on YouTube which is played in a higher key. If you are more interested in playing this one, then just replace the chords E D A E with G F C G with no capo.

CAPO on 1st Fret

E D A E
Baby youâ€™re all of my love, say me now can you feel it
E D A E
Weâ€™re not the only ones, buddy you better believe it.
E D A E
Love goes ahead, love go behind us
E D A E
Love is within and love will guide us
E D A
And Iâ€™d sure like if I felt the same
D A E
And let your love pour like water

E D A E
River of love we are returning
E D A E
Fire, water, we are still learning

E D A E
Some say the river wont flow, the river donâ€™t go run dry no,
E D A E
But I know the river wonâ€™t flow, the river wonâ€™t flow, run dry love.

E D A
And Iâ€™d sure like it if you shine your light
D A E
And let your love rain like water

E D A E
All of the sun is your reflection
E D A E
With you, and love, we are reflections

E                    D                                    A                                    E
Some say the river wont flow, the river donâ€™t go run dry no,
E                                    D                                    A                                    E
But I know the river wonâ€™t flow, the river wonâ€™t flow, run dry no.

E    D                                    A
And Iâ€™d sure like if you felt the same

E    D                    A                                    E
I mean that youâ€™re divine, youâ€™re my kind.. youâ€™re my kind..

E    D
Love ooh shine your lightâ€¦.
