Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros

Am C
I was only five when my dad told me Iâ€™d die
Am C
I cried as he said son, was nothing could be done
Am C
No all the fists I thrown just tryin to prove him wrong
Am C
After all the blood I spilled just tryin to get killed
G
Cuz Iâ€™ve already suffered I want you to know God
Am F C
Iâ€™m ridin on hellâ€™s hot flames comin up from below
Herowind and rain blowing out my window pain
Drugs drugs drug me down killin light killin sound
But now Iâ€™ve already suffered I want you to know God
Im ridin on Hellâ€™s hot flames comin up from below
Yes Iâ€™ve already suffered I want you to know God
Iâ€™m riding on Heavenâ€™s flames coming up from below

Far from below â€" how high can we go
To all the love I lost â€" hey just tryin to play boss
To all those friends I hurt â€" I treated em like dirt
And all those words I spewed â€" Nothin sacred nothing true!
To all these Ghosts I turn â€" Iâ€™m ready now to Burn!
Cuz Iâ€™ve already suffered I want you to know God
Iâ€™m ridin on hellâ€™s hot flames coming up from below
Yes Iâ€™ve already suffered I want you to know God
Iâ€™m ridin of heavenâ€™s flames coming up from below
Far - From below - how high can we go.
