Song: 3AM
Group: Edwin McCain
Album: Honor Among Thieves

Transcribed by Brian Mesing (bmesing@juno.com)

This is a great ballad. It s a simple chord progression, but it has a lot of style and dynamics involved. Enjoy!

Intro: D-D-C-A

(Verse 1)

D D C A
It s 3AM. And I m awake and my heart is still dreaming.

D D C A
It s 3AM. And outside I hear the souls still screaming.

D D C A
It s been so long, you know since my head s been this clear.

D D C A
Just like a ship lost in the night. I just don t know which way I should steer.

(Chorus)

D A D A
But I ll keep chasing my dreams. And only you can make them real.

D A
And I pour my heart out every night.

D A
But do you know the way I feel?

(Verse 2)

D

Sometimes this is work.

And don't you know sometimes this is play.

C

Sometimes you are listening to me. And sometimes you don't hear a damn word that I say.

A

D

D C

A

Sometimes there's a girl.

Sometimes I go home alone.

And I guess it's no wonder right now.

That I do very well on my own.

(Repeat Chorus)

(Repeat verse 1 slower and arpeggiate the chords)
