VERSE

A E
Wendy s sittin next to me
F#m D A
She s trying hard to drink it away
E F#m
And I feel the rumble of the subway
D A
Beneath the stage
E F#m
And her eyes are screaming
D A
And her lips are pursed
E
And this ain t her first heartache
F#m D
But it feels like, it feels like the worst

And she says
A E Bm A
Can someone tell me how this can happen
E Bm
And I guess that God only knows
A E
My heart used to be
Bm
The sweet shop of love
A Bm
But now the sign on the door

E D
It says sorry we re closed

now repeat intro chords 1x for this lead

verse 2

A E
And I hear myself tell her
F#m D A
Some old words I know they won t help
E
And then I feel guilty
F#m D
Cause I closed some sweet shops myself
A
And we all talk about timing
E
And lifestyles and such
F#m
But to a heart that s been shattered
D
Those words don t mean that much
A
And all of our pining
E
It just goes to show
F#m
Don t you enter a shop
D
With the sign on the door
Bm D
Saying sorry we re closed
A E
And she s been through all the pain
F#m D
That one can endure
A E
And her new man thinks she loves him
F#m D
But he can t be sure
A E
And his heart pines for Wendy
F#m D
She says that s how it goes

sorry but i didnt feel like doin
