Sign On The Door Edwin McCain

intro lead guitar intro chords A E F#m D 2X

VERSE

Α Ε Wendy s sittin next to me F#m D Α She s trying hard to drink it away Ε F#m And I feel the rumble of the subway D Α Beneath the stage F#m Е And her eyes are screaming D Α And her lips are pursed E And this ain t her first heartache F#m D But it feels like, it feels like the worst And she says Е Βm Α Α Can someone tell me how this can happen Ε Βm And I guess that God only knows Α Ε My heart used to be Βm The sweet shop of love Α Bm But now the sign on the door

It says sorry we re closed

Ε

now repeat intro chords 1x for this lead

D

verse 2

Α E And I hear myself tell her F#m D Α Some old words I know they won t help E And then I feel guilty F#m D Cause I closed some sweet shops myself Α And we all talk about timing Ε And lifestyles and such F#m But to a heart that s been shattered D Those words don t mean that much Α And all of our pining Ε It just goes to show F#m Don t you enter a shop D With the sign on the door sorry but i didnt feel like doin Bm D the solo but just mess around in f# minor pentatonic thats wat Saying sorry we re closed all the lead is in А Е And she s been through all the pain F#m D That one can endure Е Α And her new man thinks she loves him F#m D But he can t be sure Α E And his heart pines for Wendy F#m D She says that s how it goes

Α How am I supposed to know Ε He can t read the sign saying Bm D A E Sorry we re closed D F#m Yeah we re closed And she says A Ε Βm A Can someone tell me how this can happen E Bm And I guess that God only knows E A My heart used to be Bm The sweet shop of love А Bm But there s a sign on the door D А There s a sign on the door (3 x s) enjoy let me know how it is!!! One more sign...