Intro: D D/C# Bm D A G7 D

D
If I was a poet
D/C#
Or maybe a king
Bm D
Then I could explain to you how my heart sings
A G7 D
Whenever I look in your eyes
D D/C#
Like a hummingbird trapped in my chest, I would say is
Bm D
Just how it felt on that glorious day
A G7 D
When I first, when I first saw you

Bm D
Together we ll know true freedom
Bm D
From all earthly constraints
Bm D
Dissolving brilliance, Bright colors
E7 D*
In the picture God paints

D

Here take these pills

D/C#

I don't know what they do

Bm D

And I've already swallowed more than a few

A G7 D

I promise your mother she won't even notice they're gone

D C/C#

And what was that song that Youth Minister Ted

Bm

Sang after his sermon

D

It's been stuck in my head

A G7 D

The chorus went, it went something like this

Bm D

Together we'll know true freedom

Bm D

From all earthly constraints

Bm D

Dissolving brilliance, Bright colors

E7 D

In the picture God paints

D D/C#

The popular kids that ignored us at school

Bm D

Will whisper our names as the tears fill the pool

A G7 D

We'll look down upon them and laugh

D D/C#

As rosy-cheeked angels join us in cheers

Bm D

Where no one is lonely and there's nothing to fear

A G7 D

I wish I could go there right now

A G7 D

I wish I could go touch you right now

Bm D

Together we'll know true freedom

Bm D

From all earthly constraints

Bm D

Dissolving brilliance, Bright colors

E7 D
