We were on this car trip,

And I was looking at these rows and rows

(Am G F C) till the end of trees all along the highway.

I don t know what kind of trees, apples or something.

There were just like thousands and thousands of rows of a thousand trees each.

And I picked one tree that I could see about eight trees back in this one row in the middle.

Just one in a billion.

And that s how I felt.
