This is my favourite Eels song...It is not yet on any of the albums, but
It s brilliant.

G D A G

Guess I m doing something wrong
Never feel right in these shoes
Pocket full of matches and a head full of flame
I ve got to warn you that I m bad news

Bm D/B D D/B x2

G D A G

She tucks me in and then she screams
One day you will have to choose
Either take care of me or take care of you
And don t pretend your not bad news

Bm D/B D D/B

G D A G

Come on now I ll take you home
You have got nothing to lose
But stick around long enough and you ll find out
I am nothing but bad news

G D A G

You can never change where your from
No matter I will accuse
Gonna get with a better life
And one day I won t be bad news

Bm D/B D D/B

It s the same everyday when I wake up
It s the same in the way that you gave me up

G D A G

In the middle of a swan dive

G D

And I was soaring down

A G

Perfect and slow.

Cheers!
