Counting numbered days

[verse 2]

Lately, I think you know it s true that s it, it s all over and through for a while we can smile for the people that we re passing and even if their asking we can lie

I m counting numbered days

[instrumental]

Looks like, the sun is gonna set Know that, there s nothing I regret All the things that I learned well, I like to think I earned it no need to go and burn it down now

counting numbered days
