spunky don t like her uniform it never fit so good going back to the orphanage and the place where her garage once stood well it s a free-for-all free-for-all, free-for-all

it s a free-for-all you and me and if you don t like what they are telling you you can t teach a blind man to see well i can see spunky looks good in her bright red wig eating chocolate chip mint ice cream a cat named lola with a violent past is balled-up asleep cross her knees and it s a free-for-all free-for-all, free-for-all it s a free-for-all you and me one day the world will be ready for you and wonder how they didn t see spunky knows she can save the world in her own little way turning in her old uniform cause you know it really didn t pay cause it s a free-for-all

i ll walk through the world with your name on my tongue and your picture etched on my screen
