

One Day I Slowly Floated Away
Eisley

[Intro]

F	F	Dm	Dm	x2
---	---	----	----	----

[Verse 1]

F Dm
One day I slowly floated away

F Dm
One day I slowly floated away

F
All the war horses wore rubber bands

C
To hide their hooves from sinking sand

F
The commander in charge was hoping that

C
Their destiny was not to die

[Chorus]

Am
Wake up in the morning I shall
F
Wake up and so shall you
Am
And I wake up, the sun is beautiful
F Am
And it is warming you and I
F Am
Fragile as we lie

[Verse 2]

F Dm
Hard to foresee the future our bodies are growing thin
F Dm
Glimpsing the peeling paint of the nurse s ivory chin
F
You ve got a lot of nerve coming here
C
Your eyes are beating rhythms way
F
Faster than the speeding bullet that
C
Took the life of your radio

[Chorus]

Am

Wake up in the morning I shall

F

Wake up and so shall you

Am

And I wake up, the sun is beautiful

F

Am

And it is warming you and I

F

Am

Fragile as we lie

[Bridge]

G

And in the corner chair

Dm

Soft and soap-scented

G

Dm

My darling cries apologies

G

We foresee the mercy

Dm

That s been shown my young limbs

G

Dm

Will not go unthanked or unseen

[Chorus]

Am

Wake up in the morning I shall

F

Wake up and so shall you

Am

And I wake up, the sun is beautiful

F

Am

And it is warming you and I

F

Am

Fragile as we lie

[Outro]

Am F Am

Ooh ooh ooh ooh

Am F Am

Ooh ooh ooh ooh