

Stare At The Sun
Eleanor Friedberger

G

In the back of the taxi you turned off the TV

G

And read me a book on your phone

G

Here s the return of your skeleton key

G C Csus4 C

Oh baby, the places we ve gone

D

If that was goodbye then I must be high

G Gsus4 G

You know I ll be seeing you soon

D

If that was goodbye then the snow in July

G F G

Is hailed in the middle of June

G

Give me your toothpaste, give me your ointment

G

Give me your body and then

G

Keep this in amber, keep our appointment

G C Csus4 C

Remember the things that we said

D

If that was goodbye then I must be high

G Gsus4 G

You must be the sugar I need

D

If that was goodbye then I am a fly

G

And the futureâ€™s guaranteed

C

Cause when I m with you, everything s treasure

G

I forget what it s like to be gone

D

I m far from the town, in the suburbs of your pleasure

G C

I ve been in exile so long

I ll try not to stare at the sun, oh,

G

I ll try not to stare at the sun

D

I ll try not to stare at the sun

G

Cooperative coffee and synchronized showers

G

I try not to look at the clock

G

Goodbye to your castle, wave from the tower

G C Csus4 C

And drop me a line from the dock

D

If that was goodbye then you must be high

G

And maybe Iâ€™m losing the thread

D

If that was goodbye then the sea has run dry

G

So Iâ€™ll fill it with tears instead

C

Cause when I m with you, everything s treasure

G

I forget what it s like to be gone

D

I m far from the town, in the suburbs of your pleasure

G C

I ve been in exile so long

I ll try not to stare at the sun, oh,

G

I ll try not to stare at the sun

I ll try not to stare at the sun
