

Insomnia
Electric President

Tune half step down as in original playing. Use barred chords.

G D
There s a life full, dangling from string
G D
It s slowly swaying over my head now
G D A
As I jot down the words that will never be solved
Bm A
And wait for my headache to numb

And the wind sounds as if the world s sighing
And the moon s just a torn fingernail
As the TV flickers in homes by the wall
And I wait for my eyesight to fade

G D Bm A
So I hope, So I hope, So I hope, it s so damn slow
G D Bm A
So I hope, So I hope, So I hope, it s so damn slow

Not pride, I choke on ambition
And the old folks circle their graves
And the young ones are busy destroying their heirs
And the heirs are still just wasting away

I sit and watch this screen for a message
Some kind of sign that says we re ok
But the screen stays blank till I turn the thing on
And I wait for my conscience to break

Instrumental

G D Bm A ( the rest )

So...
So I hope, So I hope, So I hope, it s so damn slow
So I hope, So I hope, So I hope, it s so damn slow

I hope you are learning to listen
And I hope you are learning to stay
And I hope you find what you are missing
And I hope they re making your way

I m a headcase if I don t keep moving
And my head hurts if I don t sit still
It s an itch that I never stop scratching
It s a hole that I ll never quite fill

So...

Outro: G D Bm A
