Electric President - Monsters - Sleep Well (2008)

Transcribed by M.Brown

F#

Bbm

In through your window the sky will fall. Youâ€™ll trap the

F#

Bbm

stars in jars and line them along your walls. And as the

F#

Bbm

moonlight fills the veins beneath your skin, youâ€™ll hear us

F#

Bbm

knocking, oh, but you wonâ€™t let us in.

D#m

Cause youâ€™ve got no friends,

D

And youâ€™ve got no heartbeat.

D#m

Your insides are rotten now.

D

So thereâ€™s nothing to fix.

F#

B

But you said it often, before you were lost, that itâ€™s only a day. That itâ€™s only a day. But now youâ€™re a monster, and your backbone is soft. Because you threw it away. Because you threw it away.

D#m

D

F#

B

D#m

D

F#

Bbm

You called me out; I shrugged you off. I donâ€™t have the time to watch you bash in all their skulls. Cause thereâ€™s a new

F#

F#

boss in town, his heart is black, but his

Bbm

hands can reach through anything. Stick your

F#

Bbm

head in the ground. You might just dodge the guns.

D#m

But Iâ€™m not your friend.

D

And I will not fix you.

D#m

My insides are hollow now.

D

So youâ€™re all on your own. But I said it often, before we were lost. That itâ€™s only a day. That itâ€™s only a day. But now Iâ€™m a monster, and my blood all runs cold. Because I threw it away. Because I threw it away.

F# B

D#m D

F# B

D#m D

(same chords)

But now weâ€™ve forgotten. And weâ€™ve sold our blue skies.

But thereâ€™s nothing to say. Weâ€™ll be gone in a day.

And yeah, you canâ€™t take it with you. But I can sure as hell try.

Now thereâ€™s nothing to say. Iâ€™ll be gone in a day.

(chorus chords till fade)
