Milk the Lightning
Eleventyseven

Intro:
F# C# Eb B   (4x)

Verse 1:
F#   C# Eb
Right now,

          B   F#   C# Eb
I wanna milk the lightning,

          B   F#   C# Eb
I wanna tell the weatherman

          B   F#   C# Eb B
I know what he s been hiding.

Pre-chorus:

                              F#   C#   Eb
I m driving through space and I m kissing the stars

    B   F#   C#   Eb
I m burning my lips on the heat they put off,

      B   F#
The doctors have said,

                  C#   Eb
There s nothing else we can do,

          B   F#   C#   Eb
He s just waiting for death on the back of the moon.

Chorus:

              B   F#
And now I m telling my friends,

          C#   Eb
That it s all in my head,

 B   F#
I should be awake,

          C#   Eb
But I m dreaming instead.

  B   F#
I try to hold on,

          C#   Eb
But I m floating away,

        B   F#   C#   Eb
I ll be clocking back in at the end of the day,

                  B   F# C# B
But now I m losing my mind

                      F# C# B
I m losing my mind.

```
                        F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.
                        F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.

Verse 2:
                F#        C#     Eb
There s a T-Rex,
        B           F#          C#   Eb
Living in my backyard,
          B                        F#      C#   Eb
Never thought I d be a victim,
          B              F#     C#   Eb  B
Of my own imagination.

Pre-Chorus:
                F#        C#              Eb
All the cartoons living in my dreams,
    B                        F#          C#       Eb
Are walking right out of my TV screen.
    B                 F#
I take off my head,
      C#                  Eb
Look inside of my brain,
        B             F#                  C#                 Eb    B
But it s just a machine that s sharing my name.

Chorus:
                        B               F#
And now I m telling my friends,
            C#          Eb
That it s all in my head,
  B              F#
I should be awake,
          C#              Eb
But I m dreaming instead.
    B             F#
I try to hold on,
          C#              Eb
But I m floating away,
      B                   F#          C#              Eb
I ll be clocking back in at the end of the day,
                      B           F#  C#  B
But now I m losing my mind
                      F#  C#  B
I m losing my mind.
                      F#  C#  B
I m losing my mind.
                      F#  C#  B
I m losing my mind.

Instrumental:
F#  C#  Eb  B    (4x)
```

```
Outro:
                           F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.
                           F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.
                           F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.
                           F#   C#   B
I m losing my mind.
