:Verse 1:

G D Em C G D C
Everyday someone asks me whatâ€™s my story and what do I like to do
G D Em C G D C
And everyday, for the most part, I only go so far; I almost never tell the truth
G D Em C G D C

â€™Cause the truth is behind me thereâ€™s not much, to give up, I like simple,
not complicated

:Chorus:

C G D Em C
(â€™Cause) Iâ€™m a small town kid, driven by rock music And some honky-tonk, in the mix
G D Em C
I like whiskey in coke, a double to the top, a shot of cuervo now and then
G D Em C
G
I never ask for a lot, Iâ€™ll never need much, just a good-looking lady who can drive my truck
G D C D G
Iâ€™m not afraid to admit, Iâ€™m that small town kid

Bridge

D Em C G D C G

City lights, yellow cabs, Yankee hats, Suits and ties everywhere
These City folks, they look at me in my shirt and jeans, they make me think I donâ€™t fit in here
Well the things they say might be right, they might be so but one thing I know:
I
canâ€™t change who I am

Chorus

Bridge:

D C
Mama donâ€™t you worry
D C
They won t change me
D C
A hundred thousand miles
D
Mean nothing to me

Chorus
