

A great kiss and I m crying in the streets

C# B

It s a killer kiss under a friendly rain

F# B F# G#

Hear me now sell me joy and pain

B F# C#

But at the best price you can

I don t know much more than your first name

But I might stick around till I know everything

Because who we could be remains to be seen

Is it the joke now or the dream

And I like the new beginning the slow show and tell

Sometimes I think the expectation is sweeter than the love itself

It s alright I m gonna take my time I m gonna take your mistery

You know it s simple don t you try to ignore take your freedom when you re given the key

Like a new kiss and I m flying out there

A great kiss and I m crying in the streets

It s a killer kiss under a friendly rain

Hear me now sell me joy and pain

But at the best price you can

Like a new kiss and I m flying out there

A great kiss and I m crying in the streets

It s a killer kiss under a friendly rain

Hear me now sell me joy and pain

Like a new kiss and I m flying out there

A great kiss and I m crying in the streets

It s a killer kiss under a friendly rain

Hear me now sell me joy and pain
