Mr Medicine Eliza Doolittle

Verse (type 1) A D
Oh, Mr Medicine, I m so happy you came here
You went from Every man , To Every man savior
When we all took to Everest, We were lookin for change, sir
Bm F#m A D
More those who start to open, The cycle has now been broken

- Verse (type 2) A D
 First drop and you get up, There s a pile of dirty laundry
 I know you ll clean it up, You re the man to do it for me
 G A
 I trust your judgment, I like the things you say
 It s common sense, I could take three times a day
- Chorus Oh, Mr Medicine, I will take anything What do you recommend? Oh, Mr Medicine, I need my vitamins Will I feel better then?
- Verse (type 1) Oh, Mr Medicine, I feel so much better My friend s a pessimist, But you still impress her If you need evidence, Then I ll write you a letter I ll lick the stamp and post it, Just so that you can notice
- Verse (type 2) First drop and you get up, There s a pile of dirty laundry
 I know you ll clean it up, You re the man to do it for me
 And then I saw, That the patient has improved
 Calling sick, Has become a lame excuse

Chorus

Bridge F#m \mathbf{E} D А This untidy table s turning, You used the best detergent F#m D G Е Now it s shiny, it s not dirty, And we know that it is working Α D Α D Oh, Mr Medicine (Oh, Mr Medicine) Oh, Mr Medicine, (Oh, Mr Medicine)

Chorus
