(Joan Baez s latest features two of Eliza s songs.)

C G

My father made a pretty damn good living

: G

Playing music on the Beauty Way

C

He's gonna die with some money in his pocket

D Em G

Wish I could do the same today little darling

D Em

Wish I could do the same today

Doe eyed kid and a little transistor
Tuned into Wolfman Jjack
I picked up a guitar heard the sirens whisper
And I never looked back little darling
And I never looked back

I worked the clubs along the Sangre de Cristos?
Polished the diamond in the rough
By the time I hit L.A. I was hotter than a pistol
But you're never hot enough little darling
You never really hot enough

I felt the lights on the big, big stages

The fire burning in my soul

I've had those nights when my guitar rages

But it's not something you control little darling

It's not something you control

Redtail diving for a rat on Sunset Coyote picking through the trash Oh I wish I was lying like a cat in the sun  $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{C}$  stead of working like a dog for the cash little darling  $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{C}$  only working for the cash

Sometimes I wish I could unplug this cord And my soul or my money I could save Oh but every time I say  $\hat{Ia} \in \mathbb{T}_m$  gonna quit the Beauty Way

I hear my bones just turning in their grave little darling Bones turning in their grave

D -- Em yeah yeah

D -- Em yeah

D -- Em yeah yeah yeah

D -- Em yeah yeah yeah
