

Jacky Jules
Elliot Minor

I don t know about part of it but the rest is right i think.
Corrections/feedback would much appreciated :)

UPDATE!! I figured out the bit I wasn t sure of so now there s the whole song
:) x

Am
Hey everybody
G
Now the night has begun
F
It s never been the same
C
Until poor Jacky was done
Dm
We saw it all coming
C
But he turned a blind eye
B
He d just lock himself away
E
And hope that time would pass by
Am
Most of his friends all there
G
Just set for the ride
F
They re just friends to mob his money
C
Then they ll drop out and hide

Em Am Em Am
Jacky, Ja-acky
Dm C
You ve gotta escape
Dm C
Before it s too late
Em Am Em F
And Jacky, believe me
Dm C
They re waiting inside
Dm
you ve got nowhere to
Dm E
Nowhere to hide

Am
His Leanne was a looker
G
And she worked at the bar
F
One day she married Jacky
C
And got hit by a car, yeah!
Dm C Dm C
Since then he s been undercover
B
He hardly ever sleeps
E
(Losing every chance that he won)
Am
He lost it all
G
Never thought that he could end up like this
F
Living on the street
C
His broken heart just came to pieces and he
Dm C Dm C
Was found in a back alleyway
B E
Sitting on his own and starting to look frail

Em Am Em Am
Jacky, Ja-acky
Dm C
You ve gotta escape
Dm C
Before it s too late
Em Am Em F
And Jacky, believe me
Dm C
They re waiting inside
Dm C
You ve got nowhere to hide
Dm C
And they re almost here and there s
G F Em G
Nowhere to hide
G F Em
Keep just time
G F Em
Nowhere to
G F
And sometimes helpings
G F G F G
Don t get me drunk again
Am G

And sometimes they ll come

F Em F Em

Don t give a fuck

Am

G

Seven months later since the death of Jacky Jules

F

There ve been follow ups

C

And incidents to dissappoint the rules

Em Am Em Am

Jacky, Jacky

Dm C

You ve gotta escape

Dm C

Before it s too late

Em Am Em Am

And, Jacky, believe me

Dm C

When we wait, you re too late

You re too late

Em Am Em Am

Jacky, Jacky

Dm C

You ve gotta escape

Dm C

Before it s too late

Em Am Em Am

And, Jacky, believe me