G

If thereâ€™s a blue moon over Kentucky

G

Thereâ€™s a chance weâ€™ll get outta head

C7

Thereâ€™s still a chance weâ€™ll land on our feet here

D#

With our illusions barried in dead

G

Oh Angeline, you really got something

G

Something that keeps calling me

C7

You were the bright spot outside my window

D#

You were the last leave on my tree

G D# G

Angeline, Angeline

G

Oh I could tell I really could love you

G

And that scared the hell out of me

C7

When I saw the look in your eyes there

D#

I faced the truth reluctantly

G D# G G

My Angeline, my Angeline, my Angeline

Em Cm
Every night I will stand by your side
Em A
Every day I must wear a disguise
Am G
You know I still love you anyway
Am G D E
Oh you know I still love you anyway

A
Oh Angeline you told me something
A
That I remember to this day
D7
You said as everybody gets older
F
They grow more kinky in their own way

A
Oh Angeline you were scared of nothing
A
Atleast nothing you couldnâ€™t face
D7
But you canâ€™t stop the clock here
F
Not even with your bag of tricks

A F A F A F
My Angeline, my Angeline, oh Angeline
A F A F A F
My Angeline, Angeline, Angeline
