

And believe me I know that it s tough

E Asus2
But I ve seen you when you re dancing with the children
F#m B
Skip ahead to the lighter stuff

Chorus:

E G#m C#m A
And tonight when they come I ll say they can t see you no more
E G#m C#m A
Cause they ll draw out your life through a fine silver straw
E G#m C#m A B
And if I was a hero I would have fought them off at your do-o-or

Solo over [: E / Asus 2:] (x2)

Verse:

E Asus2
And youâ€™re thinking of your family
E Asus2
And youâ€™re thinking it s been much too long
E Asus2
Because you need some innocence and their order
F#m11 B
But that medicine is much too strong

E Asus2
And we re holding so tight and we re falling
E Asus2
And the funny thing is both are just the same
E Asus2
You know freedom will find its own amusement
F#m B
And it looks like we ve found a waiting game

E Asus2
So you torture yourself for that moment
E5 A
When the only thing left is to feel
E5 A
You know romantics may run free in the darkness
F#m B
But come the light, they re the first to kneel

Chorus:

E G#m C#m A
And tonight when they come I ll say they can t see you no more
E G#m C#m A

Cause they ll draw out your life through a fine silver straw

E G#m C#m A B

And if I was a hero I would have fought them off at your do-o-or

E G#m #m A

But the lines we have drawn and the sides we have chosen

E G#m C#m A

And my own indecision how badly that shows

E G#m A F#m B

And, God damn, if I was a hero I would have kept our little world clo-o-osed.

End with [: E / A :]
