

And believe me I know that it s tough

D Gsus2
But I ve seen you when you re dancing with the children
Em A
Skip ahead to the lighter stuff

Chorus:

D F#m Bm G
And tonight when they come I ll say they can t see you no more
D F#m Bm G
Cause they ll draw out your life through a fine silver straw
D F#m Bm G A
And if I was a hero I would have fought them off at your do-o-or

Solo over [: E / Asus 2:] (x2)

Verse:

D Gsus2
And youâ€™re thinking of your family
D Gsus2
And youâ€™re thinking it s been much too long
D Gsus2
Because you need some innocence and their order
Em11 A
But that medicine is much too strong

D Gsus2
And we re holding so tight and we re falling
D Gsus2
And the funny thing is both are just the same
D Gsus2
You know freedom will find its own amusement
Em A
And it looks like we ve found a waiting game

D Gsus2
So you torture yourself for that moment
D5 G
When the only thing left is to feel
D5 G
You know romantics may run free in the darkness
Em A
But come the light, they re the first to kneel

Chorus:

D F#m Bm G
And tonight when they come I ll say they can t see you no more
D F#m Bm G

Cause they ll draw out your life through a fine silver straw

D F#m Bm G A

And if I was a hero I would have fought them off at your do-o-or

D F#m #m G

But the lines we have drawn and the sides we have chosen

D F#m Bm G

And my own indecision how badly that shows

D F#m G Em A

And, God damn, if I was a hero I would have kept our little world clo-o-osed.

End with [: E / A :]
