VERSE
                                          Bb7
   Dm
The sun is up and the shades are all pulled down
                    A/B
I m more paranoid with every little sound
Like the leaf blower blowing the leaves around
And a siren wailing on the other side of town
VERSE
                                           Bb7
Oh the TV s on and the colors really hurt my head
                           A/B
If I could think straight I d wish that I was dead
  Dm
Or curled up naked in my lover s bed
                                                 Dm
           Α7
Instead I m hanging over Hell suspended by a single thread
Chorus
           Gm7
And I don t recall who said it at this time
                     F
That your enemies grow strong on what you leave behind
I built it up and the wolf he came around
He huffed and puffed, he huffed and puffed
             A7/D
He huffed and puffed,
                           Gm7
He huffed and puffed and the house fell down

VERSE
With a rolled up note I m hovering on that line
Three days on a diet of cocaine and wine
And a little weed just to level me sometime
I put the clock in the drawer cause I ve cancelled out the time
Chorus
               Gm7
And still that saying gets inside my head
                      F
         Вb
That your enemies grow strong on what you leave behind
I built it up and the wolf he came around
             Вb
He huffed and puffed, he huffed and puffed
              A7/D
He huffed and puffed,
                             Gm7
                                   Α7
He huffed and puffed and the house fell down
BREAKDOWN
        Bm7/b5
So don t knock on my door, don t try to call
I m holed up in this room talking to the wall
              Bm7/b5
When you re as high as this you think you know it all
                                                  A A/A A/B A/A A7
When you re this deep in there s no place else to fall
