

Eight Hundred Dollar Shoes
Elton John

INTRO

E G#7 | C#m A

VERSE

E B7
You had your grand illusion and wrestled with your fate
F#m/Ab G#7
The winter of your discontent came twenty years too late
C#m C#m/Bb F#/A A6
If it was love and I was there I ve forgotten where it lives
E B A
We both stepped off a frozen rock onto a burning bridge

VERSE

E B7
You came like an invasion all bells and whistles blowing
F#m/Ab G#7
Reaping the rewards of the fable you d been sowing
C#m C#m/Bb F#/A A6
I saw you cross the landing and descending marble stairs
E B A
Like Caesar crossed the Rubicon you seemed to walk on air

E G#7
And yea I ve seen your movie
C#m C#m/Bb
And I read it in your book
A E
The truth just flew off every page
G#7
Your songs have all the hooks
C#m C#m/Bb
You re seven wonders rolled in one
Bbm7/b5 A6
You shifted gear to cruise
E G# A
Oh you came to town in headlines
B9 E
And eight hundred dollar shoes

Instrumental
