

First Episode At Hienton
Elton John

Gm F Eb
I was one as you were one, and we were two so much in love forever.

Bb/D
I loved the white socks that you wore.

Gm7/Eb Dm
But you don t wear white socks no more, now you re a woman.

Gm F
I joked about your turned-up nose, criticized your school girl clothes-
Eb Bb Gm7/Eb | Dsus D |
but would I then have paced these roads - to love you?

BRIDGE:

Asus A Dm Asus A7sus - A7 Dm
For seasons come & seasons go. Bring forth the rain - the sun & snow-
Gm F
make Valerie a woman. And Valerie is lonely.

Em Am
No more to roam on the snow hills of Hienton.

Em Am
Undecided with the guardians of the older generation.

F C
A doormat was a sign of welcome - in the winter months to come.
Dm Am
And in the summer laughing through the castle ruins we d run.

Em Am Em
For the quadrangle sang to the sun, and the grace of our feeling -
F
And the candle burned low.
C Dm
As we talked of the future underneath the ceiling.

Gm F Eb
There were tears in the sky & the clouds in your eyes were just cover.
Bb/D Gm7/Eb Dsus - D
For your thighs were the cushions of my love and yours for each other.

{Repeat Bridge, then Intro}

Bb Ab
The songs still are sung. It was fun to be young.

Eb F Gm
But please don t be sad where you are.

F Eb
I am who I am. You are who you are.
Bb/D Gm7/Eb Bb/D Gm7/Eb
