G Am
Oh, Jessie I d like to be
C D G/D G C Am C
One of those men upon the screen
G C G/B D7
With an elegant lady and a cafe in Paris
Am G/B C D G/D G C Am C
Serving Pernot and Kalua with cream

G Am
You can see it I know
C D G/D G C Am C
All the doors have been closed in my face
G C G/B D7
And the drinks at the Casbah
Am G/B C D G/D G
Run a mile or more from this place

Bm Em
And oh, Jessie won t you look at the planes
Bm Em
Tell me, oh Jessie, is it true what they say

That there s a capital G in the name of the game

And the runway s a home for my silver-red plane

And oh, won t you look at the planes

Riding down the skyway

Jessie ain t those wings just fine

Don t it make you want to fly someday

G, Am, C, G/B, Em, D, G/D, D

Why friend am I so still

Tied to my job with time to kill

Do I still bear the traces of old Don Quixote

Tilting giants on imaginary hills

And oh, Jessie won t you look at the planes

Tell me, oh Jessie, is it true what they say

That there s a capital G in the name of the game

And the runway s a home for my silver-red plane

And oh, won t you look at the planes

Riding down the skyway

Jessie ain t those wings just fine

Don t it make you want to fly someday

G, Am, C, G/B, Em, D, G/D, D

G, D, G/D, G
