VERSE 2 - same as 1

Lately I ve been hoping that every single day could be a day with you

Oh but time falls through the cracks, and years and months and minutes seems way too short for me and you
The songs and birds and whistles, sun s and moon s and late night s make me think of you
See I m regular and jaded, a voice that never made it, you bring colour to my skin

CHORUS

Well I know there s not much to me
But dont you realise
There s a million things I could be
When I look into your eyes
Give me words to describe
Oh words can not describe
You babe

INSTRUMENTAL - same as verse

CHORUS (calmer, winding down to the outro)

Well I know there s not much to me
But dont you realise
There s a million things I could be
When I look into your eyes
GIve me words to describe
Oh words can not describe
You babe
Oh you baby.
