Elvis Costello

(play stacatto)

Bb5

G#5 Eb5 C#5

Bells are chiming for victory

Eb5 C#5 G#5 Bb5

There s a page back in history

Eb5 Bb5

G#5 Eb5 C#5

They came back to the world that they fought for

Eb5 C#5 G#5

Didn t turn out just like they thought

Bb5 Eb5 Bb5

Eb F Eb/F# F/G#

Here is a song to sing to do the measuring

Eb/A F/B

(guitar+bass)

What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

Nine years later a child is born

There s a record, so you put it on

45

Nine years more, if we re lucky now

Nine-year-old puts his money down

45

Every scratch. every click, every heartbeat

Every breath that I held for you

45

There s a stack of shellac and vinyl

Which is yours now and which is mine?

45

Here is a song to sing to do the measuring

What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

Bb5 Eb5

Bass and treble heal every hurt

C#5 G#5

There s a rebel in a nylon shirt

Bb5 G#5 Eb5

But the words are a mystery, I ve heard

G5 C5 (Gm and Cm on organ)

Til you turn it down to 33 and 1/3

Bb5 G#5 Eb5 C#5 Eb5

Cos it helps with the elocution

C#5 G#5

Corporations turn revolutions

Bb5 G#5 Bb5

45

So don't just weep and shed
Just change your name instead
What do you lose when it all goes to your head?

I heard something peculiar said:
Perhaps he's got a shot and now he's dead

45

Bells are chiming and tears are falling
It creeps up on you without a warning
Every scratch, every click, every heartbeat
Every breath that I bless
I'd be lost, I confess
