F5 C5 Bb5

Bells are chiming for victory

C5 Bb5 F5 G5

There s a page back in history

C5 G5

45

F5 C5 Bb5

They came back to the world that they fought for

C5 Bb5 F5

Didn t turn out just like they thought

C D C/F# D/G#

Here is a song to sing to do the measuring

C/A D/B (guitar+bass)

What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

Nine years later a child is born

There s a record, so you put it on

45

Nine years more, if we re lucky now

Nine-year-old puts his money down

45

Every scratch. every click, every heartbeat

Every breath that I held for you

45

There s a stack of shellac and vinyl

Which is yours now and which is mine?

45

Here is a song to sing to do the measuring

What do you lose, what do you gain, what do you win?

G5 C5

Bass and treble heal every hurt

Bb5 F5

There s a rebel in a nylon shirt

G5 F5 C5

But the words are a mystery, I ve heard

E5 A5 (Em and Am on organ)

Til you turn it down to 33 and 1/3

G5 F5 C5 Bb5 C5

Cos it helps with the elocution

Bb5 F5

Corporations turn revolutions

G5 F5 G5

So don't just weep and shed
Just change your name instead
What do you lose when it all goes to your head?

I heard something peculiar said:
Perhaps he's got a shot and now he's dead
45

Bells are chiming and tears are falling
It creeps up on you without a warning
45
Every scratch, every click, every heartbeat
Every breath that I bless
I'd be lost, I confess
