(chorus)
A                                   A   D   A
It s going round the town
A                                   A   D   A
It s going round the town
A                                   E
It s going round the town
E            A            D   A
You re so lovable

D                    A
My baby gave me notice to quit
E                    A
I just can t get used to it
D                    A
She broke my little heart in two
E    B
Now somebody else is being the same old you

(chorus
D                    A
My baby has Egyptian eyes
E    A
And a wicked look beyond compare
D    A
If you thought I was a fool for you
E    B
Then I must be a bigger fool for her

(chorus)

He d turn the flowers of springtime into a wreath
He says he d love you eternally
I say please please can t you keep it brief

A D
They say they re going to bury you

E A
Because you re so lovable

A D
Put your money where your mouth was

E A
You re so lovable

A D
Each tender mumble brings us closer to bedlam

E A
You re so lovable

A D
The toast of the town and the talk of the bedroom

(modulation)

You re so lovable

You re so sweet
You re so honest
You say `I ll be true to you boy
But I won t promise
Then you say you love me
Then you show me
As you lie there so lifelike below me

(chorus)
