

My Little Blue Window
Elvis Costello

Eb Bb Eb
This is a calling card
G# Eb Bb
Maybe it will be a farewell note
G# Ebinv Fm Eb
The poison fountain pen now requires the antidote
G# Eb
And if I avert your gaze
G# Eb Bb
And I should become a shrinking flower
G# Dinv
Just punch me on the arm
Fm Eb
This could be our finest hour

Cm Cm/A
Til now this was my view
Cm/Ab G#7M
But I m counting on you
Eb
How am I ever going to make you see?
Cm C# C# C Bbm
Nothing in this ugly world comes easily
I want you to be...

G# Eb G# Eb
My lovely hooligan
G# Eb G# Eb
Come by and smash my pane
G# Eb G# Eb
Til I can see right through
G# Eb G# Eb
My little blue window

This is a fingerprint
Maybe you will feel a fond caress
But when you start to speak
Are you tempted to confess?

Well, I was a gloomy soul
Never thought I d see a brighter day
The dark interior
Blows those silver clouds away

Til now this was my view
But I m counting on you
How am I ever going to make you see?

Nothing in this ugly world comes easily
I want you to be...

My lovely hooligan
Come by and smash my pane
Til I can see right through
My little blue window
(repeat twice)