Don t know what to do with their hands Am6 You think that you ll be sweet to her F Fmaj7 But everybody knows BmThat you re the marshmellow valentine That got stuck on her clothes You re not going to do a thing to our little angel There s nothing you re thinking tonight That tomorrow won t change Am6 Αm So you mix your drinks and words F Fmaj7 You make bad jokes you make bad time Am Am6 The floors are there to walk over The walls are there to climb Am6 You swear you ll never go back again F Fmaj7 Once you re inside You re never the bridegroom She s always the bride You re not going to do a thing to our little angel There s nothing you re thinking tonight That tomorrow won t change You ll come in a sweetheart and you ll go out a stranger Well you try to lover her but she s so contrary Like a chainsaw running through a dictionary So get your mind off the sweet behind of our little angel You re not going to do a thing
