

One Broken Heart For Sale
Elvis Presley

```
E |-----|
A |-----|
D |-----|
G |-----0---|
B |-0-2-4-----|
E |-----|
```

D                    Bm                                    D
Who wants to buy a heart      Oh Yeah

D                    Bm
One broken lovers heart

G                    A                    D                    G A
One broken heart for sale

D    G    A
Well, excuse me if you see me crying like a baby

D                    Bm
Since she rejected me

G    A                    D
There s nothing left to save me

D                    Bm
Who wants to buy a heart

D                    Bm
One broken lovers heart

G                    A                    D                    G A
One broken heart for sale

D                    Bm
Hey Cupid, where are you?

G    A
My heart is growing sadder

D                    Bm
That girl rejected me

G    A                    D
Just when I thought I had her

D                    Bm
Who wants to buy a heart

D                    Bm
One broken lovers heart

G                    A                    D                    G A
One broken heart for sale

D                    Bm                                    G    A
She would not listen to the things my heart was saying

D                    Bm
She turned and walked away

G                    A            D
And told me I was playing
D                    Bm
Some guys have all the luck

G                                    A
And my heart hasn't any
D                                    Bm
I think I'll paint a sign

G                    A            D
For sale for a penny

D                                    Bm
Who wants to buy a heart

D                                    Bm
One broken lover's heart

G                    A                    D            G D
One broken heart for sale