The Last Farewell Elvis Presley

Intro: F C F Ab F

verse 1

F C I

There s a ship lies rigged and ready in the harbor

F Bb

Tomorrow for Old England she sails

Вb

Far away from your land of endless sunshine

Bb G C

To my land full of rainy skies and gales

F C F

And I shall be aboard that ship tomorrow

Bb

Though my heart is full of tears at this farewell

G C A D G

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly

G C F I

More dearly than the spoken word can tell

G C A D G C

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly

G C F C F

More dearly than the spoken word can tell

verse 2

F C

I ve heard there s a wicked war a-blazing

F Bl

And the taste of war I know so very well

Bb

Even now I see that foreign flag a-raising

Bb G (

Their guns on fire as we sail into Hell

F C

I have no fear of death, it brings no sorrow

F B

But how bitter will be this last farewell

G C A D G

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly

G C F D

More dearly than the spoken word can tell
G C A D G C

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly
G C F C F C F

More dearly than the spoken word can tell

verse 3

F C F
Though death and darkness gather all about me
F Bb
And my ship be torn apart upon the seas
Bb
I shall smell again the fragrance of these islands
Bb G C
And the heaving waves that brought me once to thee
F C F
And should I return safe home again to England
F Ab
I shall watch the English mist roll through the Dale

G C A D G C

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly
G C F D

More dearly than the spoken word can tell
G C A D G C

For you are beautiful, I have loved you dearly
G C F C F Ab F

More dearly than the spoken word can tell