This Is The Story Elvis Presley Standard Tuning (Capo 1) Intro - A Α Е F I play the song, that was our own. Your photographs by D \mathbf{Bm} Ε Α C Α my side. I know I can t forget you, so I don t even try. A note E C Α F you left is in my hand, I read again what you say. You re sorry D Bm E. but you love him, and you both gone away Α D C#m F#m Refrain-This is the story of man, who s world has fallen apart, Е D Α Α and it s the story, that is breaking my heart. An open fire, a favorite chair, I get a book from the shelf. But the words I am reading, could apply to myself. (refrain) Transcribed by Daniel J. Langa Inherit the Wind Standard tuning Note: Play this song in the key it s written for the original version. Use a Capo 1 to play the version from the Collectors Gold album, which is a live version of this song from 1969. Intro-B F#m E E в Baby don t fall in love with me, I ll only bring you grief. E F#m в E Baby don t set your heart on me, I ll only have to leave. E Е Ά Refrain-Because the north winds flows through my veins. Like Α Е C#m my dad there s a dream in my brain. In the morning I ll have to F#m Α D \mathbf{E} leave again, well that s how it is when you, inherit the wind, Е в inherit the wind Daddy he was a traveling man. I hardly knew his face. Mama she cried for him at night, he never stayed in one place Well I can t give you the love you need. You just won t be here that long. But if you still want me here tonight, I ll love you till the break of dawn