

You Give Me A Mountains
Elvis Presley

You Gave Me A Mountain

By: Marty Robbins

Performed By: Elvis Presley

Tabbed by: Brandon Hogg (hogg1@ipa.net)

Intro:

```
E-----
-|
-----8-----10---8---8-----
-|
-----9--9---7---9-----9-----10---9-----
-|
-----10--9--7-----
-|
-----
-|
e-----
-|
```

```
C                Am                F
G
Born in the heat of the desert          My mother died giving me life.
```

```
C                Am                F
G
Deprived of the love of a Father.      Blamed for the loss of his wife.
```

```
C                Em                F
G
You know Lord, I ve been in a prison    For something that I never done
```

```
C                Em                F
G
It s been one hill after another        But I ve climbed them all one by one
```

CHORUS:

```
C                F                C
Oh, But this time Lord you gave me A mountain
```

	F	C	FC	C7
A mountain that I may never climb

It isn't Lord a hill anylonger

C
F
C
 You gave me a mountain this time

2nd Verse: same progression as 1st verse

My Woman got tired of the heartache. Tired of the grief and the strife.
So tired of working for nothing. Just Tired of being my wife.

She took my one ray of sunshine. She took my pride and my joy.
She took my reason for living. she took my small baby boy