Another Guy had an attempt at this. Good attempt, but oh so wrong.
Play along with the song and you ll get the picture.

G Gm
As water laps my feet

D Bm
Sharks surround me I sleep

G A
Smile and line up your army

G A
My enemies can t get near me

D Gm Bm A
Cos I claimed victory that day now I m calm

D Bm G A
I have seen in your eyes how much you suffer in the dark

G A
Where shining stars light the heavens

G A
We satellites hope to reach

G A D Gm
And my blackwater reflects them for me

Bm
For me

Gm D Bm G A

G Gm
Come on lets make our move they won t

D Bm
See a thing they can t see through

G A

Where shining stars light the heavens

G A
We satellites hope to reach

G A D Bm
And my blackwater reflects them for me for me

G A
Where shining stars light the heavens

G A
We satellites hope to reach

G A D Gm
And my blackwater reflects them for me

Bm Gm D Bm G A

D G A
Redemption will pour, crashes to the floor

D G A
And a million cold thoughts won't stop you feeling warm

D G A
Cos the love that you bring conquers all these things

D G A (repeat as necessary)
