sorry, the previous one was mistaken, it was F#m and not Fm

Emerson, Lake & Palmer - Take a Pebble

[Verse 1]

Em F#m
Just take a pebble and cast it to the sea,
Em F#m
Then watch the ripples that unfold into me,
A5 G5 D5/A G5
My face spill so gently into your eyes,
A5 C Bm/F# E
Disturbing the waters of our lives.

[Verse 2]

Em F#m
Shred of our memories are lying on your grass;
Em F#m
Wounded words of laughter are graveyards of the past.
A5 G5 D5/A G5
Photographs are grey and torn, scattered in your fields
A5 C Bm/F# E
Letters of your memories are not real.

[Keyboard Solo]

[Guitar Rhythmics]

(changes the bass in the arpeggio and then bends the minor third) IN D#

[Keyboard Solo in F#]

[Verse 3]

Em F#m
Sadness on your shoulders like a wornout overcoat
Em F#m
In pockets creased and tattered hang the rags of your hope.
A5 G5 D5/A G5
The daybreak is your midnight; the colours have all died.
A5 C Bm/F# E C Bm/F# A G
Disturbing the waters of our lives, of our lives, of our lives, lives,
F
lives...
Em
Of our lives.
